A Complete Guide to Kumihimo on a Braiding Loom for recommended book at Amazon (click here) My recommendation Kumihimo is a traditional Japanese art form for braiding. Back in the sixth century it was an art form used during Buddhist ceremonies to decorate homes. It has evolved to become very colorful and complicated since.

Book Review | Kumihimo

It is an art both culturally significant and beautiful. In Japanese, the word kumihimo means to gather or combine cord or thread. As the ornately jewel-like ropes suggest, modern kumihimo can involve many strands. At first, the process was done entirely by hand without the help of any sort of tool.
