The Acid House is a collection of short stories, with each story featuring a new set of characters and scenarios. I am a fan of Irvine Welsh's works so I really enjoyed this one. Welsh's characters are edgy; society's dregs, hard-luck losers pinned to seediness by their own low expectations. The short stories are full of the characters' nihilism and self-absortion, violence and twisted/black ...

A collection of 21 stories and one novella—Welsh's second book, but his first published stateside—that will inevitably be compared to last year's Booker winner, James Kelman. The Scottish dialect, the urban lowlife characters, and the vulgar slang all make a similar claim to authenticity. Welsh's punters prowl the streets of Edinburgh, not Kelman's Glasgow, a distinction likely to be lost ...
