The Marriage God Wants For

Most people would agree that marriage today is in crisis. What is usually overlooked even by those married in the Church is that God intended marriage to be a sacrament. The Lord wants couples to rely on his promise to be present in their day-to-day lives, and he wants to give them the grace to live out a covenantal love that mirrors the love ...

The Marriage God Wants for You: Why the Sacrament Makes ...

Marriage is a means of serving and glorifying God. Young women who view marriage as their chief goal are turning the wedding and the married state into an idol. God planned for marriage to be a blessed state of mutual service to Him." God established marriage as a covenant, not a contract (Malachi 2:14; Proverbs 2:16-17).

The Marriage God Wants for You: Why the Sacrament Makes ...

Remember, your marriage, in the here and now, is a picture and reflection of the marriage that God wants for you—that is yet to come. You don't get there by looking to your spouse. This doesn't happen—this doesn't work—by looking to your spouse. This only works by looking to our Redeemer because He is, indeed, our only hope.

The Marriage God Wants You To Have | FamilyLife®

God made marriage to be so much more than what many of us know and think about it today. To help us see the beauty of marriage, here are a few things that God has purposed for it. 1) He wants Godly offspring through it. In Malachi 2:13-17 we read of a passage where God rebukes the priests for not treating their wives faithfully.

3 things God wants from Christian marriages

God created marriage as a loyal partnership between one man and one woman. Marriage is the firmest foundation for building a family. God designed sexual expression to help married couples build intimacy. Marriage mirrors God's covenant relationship with His people. We see this last parallel throughout the Bible.
